Dear Donor,

The 30th Avenue School, known as Q300, is a K-8 citywide public school in Astoria, Queens, serving more than 500 children from throughout New York City, including Queens, Manhattan, Brooklyn, and The Bronx. Q300 is guided by our core values of inclusion, inquiry, and responsibility.

We are writing to ask for your help as we organize our annual Winter Auction, focusing on summer camps, which will be online in February 2020.

We hope you will consider supporting this year's efforts by donating an auction item. Your donation not only supports a public school, it showcases your business to our community of more than 500 families, all of whom live and work in New York City, and to our friends and neighbors, many of whom bid in our online auction.

Our deadline for auction items is January 23rd, 2020. Bidding gets competitive when people see the exciting items donated! To donate an auction item, please use this online form [<https://bit.ly/2XwjYFS>]

We need your help!

Q300 and its PTA support the educational needs of all of its students. Your donation to support public education will make a difference in our classrooms. Here are just a few of the things that donations from businesses like yours helped us pay for in the past year:

- Classes in Art, Music, and Dance
- Robotics kits, microscopes, and Chromebook computers
- A fund to offset activities and field trips fees for students in financial need

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Joanna Holzman Maria Hantzopoulos
