Dear Donor,

The 30th Avenue School, known as Q300, is a K-8 citywide public school in Astoria, Queens, serving more than 500 children from throughout New York City, including Queens, Manhattan, Brooklyn, and the Bronx. Q300 is guided by our core values of inclusion, inquiry, and responsibility.

We are writing to ask for your help as we organize our 8th annual online auction in Spring 2022, which will go live at the end of March.

We hope you will consider supporting this year's efforts by donating an auction item from your business. Your donation not only supports a public school -- it also showcases your business to our community of more than 500 families, all of whom live and work in New York City.

Our deadline for auction items is Friday, March 11th. To donate an auction item, please use this online form (<https://forms.gle/hJkaey6dBA8WPdsv6>) or contact us at auction@q300pta.org.

How does your gift help our students?

Q300 and its PTA support the educational and emotional needs of all of its students. Your donation to support public education will make a difference in our classrooms. Here are just a few of the things that donations from businesses like yours helped us pay for in the past years:

- Enrichment classes in art, music, and dance
- Microscopes and Chromebook computers
- A fund to offset fees for students in financial need
- Air purifiers, masks, and other health and safety resources
- Teacher development programs

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Joanna Holzman
Auction Chair
