

Green Seed of the Week

A weekly sustainability tip for our Q300 Community

Take action by writing a message or drawing a picture.

Kids & families across New York State are sending letters or drawings this week to legislative leaders about funding climate justice now! Go to: <http://bit.ly/Kidsfor15B> for more info and take action by Saturday, Feb. 19.

The climate crisis and fossil fuel pollution have been affecting New York kids, particularly those in BIPOC and low-income communities, for years. Children's health, safety, and ability to learn are being impacted as floods worsen and temperatures become more extreme. Even their opportunities for play are being limited, when they can't run around outside because the air quality is too low.
